UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X

ANGEL ESPINOZA, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

WESTSIDE SUPERMARKET LLC (D/B/A WESTSIDE MARKET), WS MARKET LLC
(D/B/A WEST SIDE MARKET), MAJED
ALMADHLOM, and TAWFIK ALHAYANI,

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff Angel Espinoza (“Plaintiff Espinoza” or “Mr. Espinoza”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against WESTSIDE SUPERMARKET LLC (d/b/a Westside Market), WS MARKET LLC (d/b/a West Side Market), (“Defendant Corporations”), Majed Almadhlom and TAWFIK ALHAYANI, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Espinoza is a former employee of Defendants WESTSIDE SUPERMARKET LLC (d/b/a Westside Market), WS MARKET LLC (d/b/a West Side Market), Majed Almadhlom, and TAWFIK ALHAYANI.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a supermarket, located at 77 Seventh Avenue, Chelsea, NY 10011 under the name “West Side Market.”

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Majed Almadhlom and TAWFIK ALHAYANI, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporations and, through these corporate entities, operate or operated the supermarket as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Espinoza was employed as a stock worker and delivery worker at the supermarket located at 77 Seventh Avenue, Chelsea, NY 10011.

5. Plaintiff Espinoza was ostensibly employed as a delivery worker. However, he was required to spend a considerable part of his work day performing non-tipped duties, including but not limited to sweeping, mopping, taking out the trash, and stocking beverages (hereafter the “non-tipped duties”).

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Espinoza worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

8. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

9. Defendants employed and accounted for Plaintiff Espinoza as a delivery worker in their payroll, but in actuality his duties required a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties alleged above.

10. Regardless, at all relevant times, Defendants paid Plaintiff Espinoza at a rate that was lower than the required tip-credit rate.

11. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiff Espinoza's non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever is less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.

12. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiff Espinoza's actual duties in payroll records by designating him as a delivery worker instead of as a non-tipped employee. This allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiff Espinoza at the minimum wage rate and enabled them to pay him at the tip-credit rate (which they still failed to do).

13. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Espinoza to all other similarly situated employees.

14. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Espinoza and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

15. Plaintiff Espinoza now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and the "spread of hours" and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the "Spread of Hours Wage Order"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

16. Plaintiff Espinoza seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Espinoza's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

18. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a supermarket located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Espinoza was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

19. Plaintiff Angel Espinoza ("Plaintiff Espinoza" or "Mr. Espinoza") is an adult individual residing in New York County, New York.

20. Plaintiff Espinoza was employed by Defendants at West Side Market from approximately January 25, 2021 until on or about September 17, 2021.

21. Plaintiff Espinoza consents to being a party plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and brings these claims based upon the allegations herein as a representative party of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

Defendants

22. At all relevant times, Defendants owned, operated, or controlled a supermarket, located at 77 Seventh Avenue, Chelsea, NY 10011 under the name “West Side Market.”

23. Upon information and belief, WESTSIDE SUPERMARKET LLC (d/b/a Westside Market) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 77 Seventh Avenue, Chelsea, NY 10011.

24. Upon information and belief, WS MARKET LLC (d/b/a West Side Market) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 77 Seventh Avenue, Chelsea, NY 10011.

25. Defendant Majed Almadhlom is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Majed Almadhlom is sued individually in his capacity as a manager of Defendant Corporations. Defendant Majed Almadhlom possesses operational control over Defendant Corporations and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporations. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Espinoza, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

26. Defendant TAWFIK ALHAYANI is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant TAWFIK ALHAYANI is sued individually in his capacity as a manager of Defendant Corporations. Defendant TAWFIK ALHAYANI possesses operational control over Defendant Corporations and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporations. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Espinoza, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

27. Defendants operate a supermarket located in the Chelsea section of Manhattan in New York City.

28. Individual Defendants, Majed Almadhlom and TAWFIK ALHAYANI, possess operational control over Defendant Corporations, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporations, or control significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

29. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

30. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff Espinoza's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff Espinoza, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

31. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff Espinoza (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiff Espinoza's (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

32. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Espinoza and/or similarly situated individuals.

33. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Majed Almadhlom and TAWFIK ALHAYANI operate Defendant Corporations as either alter egos of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporations as entities legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporations as Corporations,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entities of Defendant Corporations, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporations for their own benefit as the sole or majority shareholders,
- e) operating Defendant Corporations for their own benefit and maintaining control over these corporations as closed Corporations,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporations,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporations to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

34. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Espinoza's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Espinoza, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Espinoza's services.

35. During 2021, Defendants, both separately and jointly, have had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

36. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the supermarket on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

37. Plaintiff Espinoza is a former employee of Defendants who ostensibly was employed as a stock worker and delivery worker. However, he spent over 20% of each shift performing the non-tipped duties described above.

38. Plaintiff Espinoza seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Angel Espinoza

39. Plaintiff Espinoza was employed by Defendants from approximately January 25, 2021 until on or about September 17, 2021.

40. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Espinoza as a stock worker and delivery worker.

41. However, Plaintiff Espinoza was also required to spend a significant portion of his work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

42. Although Plaintiff Espinoza ostensibly was employed as a stock worker and delivery worker, he spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout his employment with Defendants.

43. Plaintiff Espinoza regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as produce and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

44. Plaintiff Espinoza's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

45. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Espinoza regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

46. From approximately January 25, 2021 until on or about September 17, 2021, Plaintiff Espinoza worked from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., 7 days a week (typically 77 hours per week).

47. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Espinoza his wages in cash.

48. From approximately January 2021 until on or about September 17, 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Espinoza a fixed salary of $720 per week.

49. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Espinoza any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

50. Plaintiff Espinoza was never notified by Defendants that his tips were being included as an offset for wages.

51. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Espinoza's wages.

52. Plaintiff Espinoza was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

53. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Espinoza regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

54. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Espinoza an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

55. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Espinoza, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Espinoza's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

56. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Espinoza (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

57. Plaintiff Espinoza was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

58. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Espinoza not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Espinoza's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

59. Defendants required Plaintiff Espinoza and all other delivery workers to perform general non-tipped tasks in addition to their primary duties as delivery workers.

60. Plaintiff Espinoza and all similarly situated employees, ostensibly were employed as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties included a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties outlined above.

61. Plaintiff Espinoza's duties were not incidental to his occupation as a tipped worker, but instead constituted entirely unrelated general supermarket work with duties, including the non-tipped duties described above.

62. Plaintiff Espinoza and all other tipped workers were paid at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate by Defendants.

63. However, under state law, Defendants were not entitled to a tip credit because the tipped worker's and Plaintiff Espinoza's non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever is less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146).

64. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day in which he or she has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

65. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants classified Plaintiff Espinoza and other tipped workers as tipped employees, and paid them at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

66. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiff Espinoza who received tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiff Espinoza's earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

67. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiff Espinoza who received tips, that his tips were being credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

68. Defendants failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiff Espinoza who worked as a delivery worker for the tips he received.

69. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

70. Defendants paid Plaintiff Espinoza his wages in cash.

71. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

72. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Espinoza (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Espinoza properly for his full hours worked.

73. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

74. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Espinoza and other similarly situated former workers.

75. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Espinoza and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

76. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Espinoza and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

77. Plaintiff Espinoza brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class members”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”).

78. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Espinoza and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.

79. The claims of Plaintiff Espinoza stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

80. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

81. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff Espinoza’s employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class Members), controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

82. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

83. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

84. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

85. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

86. Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

87. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

88. Defendants, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

89. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members), overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

90. Plaintiff Espinoza (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK MINIMUM WAGE ACT

91. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

92. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff Espinoza's employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Espinoza, controlled the terms and conditions of his employment, and determined the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for his employment.

93. Defendants, in violation of NYLL § 652(1) and the supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, paid Plaintiff Espinoza less than the minimum wage.

94. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Espinoza the minimum wage was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

95. Plaintiff Espinoza was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW

96. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

97. Defendants, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq., and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

98. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Espinoza overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

99. Plaintiff Espinoza was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE SPREAD OF HOURS WAGE ORDER

OF THE NEW YORK COMMISSIONER OF LABOR

100. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

101. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Espinoza one additional hour's pay at the basic minimum wage rate before allowances for each day Plaintiff Espinoza's spread of hours exceeded ten hours in violation of NYLL §§ 650 et seq. and 12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§ 146-1.6.

102. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Espinoza an additional hour's pay for each day Plaintiff Espinoza's spread of hours exceeded ten hours was willful within the meaning of NYLL § 663.

103. Plaintiff Espinoza was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING

REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

104. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

105. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Espinoza with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Espinoza's primary language), containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by NYLL §195(1).

106. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff Espinoza in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

107. Plaintiff Espinoza repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

108. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Espinoza with an accurate statement listing each of the following: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL 195(3).

109. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff Espinoza in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Espinoza respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants by:

(a) Designating this action as a collective action and authorizing prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all putative class members apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to promptly file consents to be Plaintiffs in the FLSA claims in this action;

(b) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members;

(c) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members;

(d) Declaring that Defendants violated the recordkeeping requirements of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff Espinoza's and the FLSA Class members' compensation, hours, wages, and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

(e) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the FLSA were willful as to Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members;

(f) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage, overtime compensation, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable;

(g) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members liquidated damages in an amount equal to 100% of his damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b);

(h) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiff Espinoza;

(i) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiff Espinoza;

(j) Declaring that Defendants violated the spread-of-hours requirements of the NYLL and supporting regulations as to Plaintiff Espinoza;

(k) Declaring that Defendants violated the notice and recordkeeping requirements of the NYLL with respect to Plaintiff Espinoza's compensation, hours, wages and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

(l) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the NYLL and spread of hours wage order were willful as to Plaintiff Espinoza;

(m) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation, and for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages, as well as awarding spread of hours pay under the NYLL as applicable

(n) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza damages for Defendants' violation of the NYLL notice and recordkeeping provisions, pursuant to NYLL §§198(1-b), 198(1-d);

(o) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza liquidated damages in an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total amount of minimum wage, overtime compensation, and spread of hours pay shown to be owed pursuant to NYLL § 663 as applicable; and liquidated damages pursuant to NYLL § 198(3);

(p) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as applicable;

(q) Awarding Plaintiff Espinoza and the FLSA Class members the expenses incurred in this action, including costs and attorneys' fees;

(r) Providing that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expiration of the time to appeal and no appeal is then pending, whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically increase by fifteen percent, as required by NYLL § 198(4); and

(s) All such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff Espinoza demands a trial by jury on all issues triable by a jury.
